Recommendation of Mahajan Committee on Sugar Regarding Import Duty

2015. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA: Will the Minister of FOOD AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Committee headed by the former Food Secretary B.B Mahajan has recommended a 40% countervailing import duty on sugar to protect the domestic industry and to do away with sale of sugar under PDS gradually over a period of two years; and

(b) if so, what are its precise recommendations and the decisions taken thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS (SHRI SATYA PAL SINGH YADAV): (a) and (b) The Mahajan Committee has recommended that import duty may be levied at 40% of average difference between exfactory price of freesale and levy sugar during the past 5 years. The Committee also recommended complete decontrol of sugar which could be phased out over a period of two years. It has been suggested that Statutory Levy percentage may be reduced to 20% from the beginning of the next sugar season and that it may be retained at that level for two years. After the expiry of those two years, the levey provision may be completely abolished.

The recommendations of the Committee are under examination in Government.
